Re: United States v. Ari Teman,
S2 19 Cr. 696 (PAE)

Dear Judge Engelmayer:

The Government writes to request an extension of time until January 8, 2020, within which to file its responses to defendant Ari Teman's motions in limine.

On November 25, 2019, the Court ordered that the parties motions in limine would be due on January 3, 2020, with responses due on January 7, 2020. On January 3, 2020, the defendant requested and was granted until January 7, 2020, to file his motions. Yesterday evening, he filed four motions in limine. See ECF Nos. 60-63.

The Government's current deadline to respond to the motions in limine is today. In order to properly respond to the defendant's motions, the Government requests an extension of time until January 8, 2020, within which to file its responses.

Respectfully submitted,

GEOFFREY S. BERMAN
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York

The defendant was granted until yesterday, January 6, 2020, to file his motions. Dkt. 53. The Government's request is granted. Its response is due by tomorrow, January 8, 2020, at 5 p.m.

The Clerk of Court is requested to terminate the motion at Dkt. No. 66.

SO ORDERED.

PAUL A. ENGELMAYER
United States District Judge
